

Whole peanuts (shelled)

- Can be used in beef cattle diets when available
- High energy and protein value
- High fat content – limiting feeding factor
- Must be introduced into diets gradually

Feeding Considerations

- 4 pounds per head daily should be the maximum when feeding mature cattle

On average:
85% dry matter
95% TDN
24% CP
38% fat